

Relevant Maintenance Topics

Presenting, attending activities, or involvement in organizations related to the following topics, awards maintenance professional development points.

Accounting	Manufacturing planning
Analysis and Decision Making	Marketing
APICS CPIM certification review courses	Marketing management
APICS CPM review courses	Master planning
Asset Management	Material and capacity requirements planning
Basics of supply chain management	Material requirements planning (MRP)
Bottleneck management and production sequencing	Multi-site implementation strategies
Business forecasting	New product development
Business law	Operating systems
Business policy	Operations analysis
Business process modeling and redesign	Operations management
Business process reengineering	Optimizing financial goals within the supply chain
Business statistics	Order processing
Circular Economy	Organizational behavior
Critical thinking	Organizational development

Database management	Philosophy of values and ethics
Demand-flow techniques	Policy formulation
Distribution resource planning (DRP)	Principles of management
Economics	Production control
Enterprises resource planning (ERP)	Production management
Executive management	Production planning
Finance	Project management
Financial analysis	Purchasing
Financial integration	Quality management
Global dimensions in business	Resource management
Human resource management	Sales delivery and invoicing
Industrial engineering	Sales orders
Integrative planning and control	Statistical analysis
International purchasing	Statistical inventory control
Inventory management	Statistical methods
Invoicing	Strategic management and policy
Location and lot control (warehousing) management	Sustainability
Management accounting	Team building
Management of information systems technology	Theory of constraints

Management of the total enterprise Transportation management

Managerial ethics Warehouse management

Managing business information systems Warehousing